

About the L.E. Phillips Senior Center:

The L.E. Phillips Senior Center is a private, non-profit organization and has been in existence since 1982. Its purpose is to meet the needs of adults age 50 and over by offering educational, social, recreational, health and wellness, and volunteer activities to its members and non-members alike. Organizational goals include offering opportunities for older adults to:

- Continue to develop and grow as community members
- Access sources of information for assistance in their personal lives
- Fulfill their interests and use their talents
- Learn from individuals with similar life experiences
- Interact with peers and other generations
